PATHFINDERS' CLUB ANNUAL REPORT

2022- 2023

Introduction

Pathfinders Club at Wavoo Wajeeha Women's College is dedicated to guiding and assisting students on their personal and academic journeys. This club serves as a support system for college students, helping them navigate challenges and opportunities during their university years.

It provides a platform for students to connect with one another and build a strong community. By fostering relationships among students, the club aims to create a supportive environment where individuals can share their experiences, challenges, and achievements. This sense of belonging helps students feel more connected to their college community, which enhances their overall college experience.

It also focuses on empowering college students through various initiatives and programs. These programs are designed to help students develop essential life skills, such as leadership, communication, and problem-solving. Through workshops, seminars, and mentoring sessions, the club equips students with the tools they need to succeed both in college and beyond.

Furthermore, the Pathfinders Club organizes various activities and events tailored to college students' interests and needs. These include career fairs, networking events, volunteer opportunities, and recreational outings. By engaging in these activities, students can explore their passions, expand their net works, and make lasting memories.

In addition to its focus on personal and professional development, the Pathfinders Club also emphasizes community service. The club actively engages in various social initiatives, such as volunteering at local charities, organizing fundraisers, and participating in community outreach programs. By giving back to the community, the club encourages students to become responsible citizens and positively impact society.

It serves as a guiding force, helping students navigate college life and providing them with the support and resources they need to thrive. Through fostering a sense of community, empowering students, organizing activities, and promoting community service, the club plays a crucial role in enhancing the college experience for students.

Pathfinders' Club Inauguration

The Pathfinders Club was inaugurated in the ICT hall at 11.30 am on 17/03/23. The event was attended by students from all departments. The meeting began with the recitation of quirath by A.A.Najeeba Nuzaiha III BBA, followed by Tamil Thai Vazhthu.

Dr.J. Sugantham Parimala, Assistant Professor of Economics welcomed the gathering. As the inaugural speaker, Dr. Rama, Principal of Wavoo Wajeeha College, graced the event. Dr.M. Christy Mercy, Assistant Professor of Tamil, and Mrs.G.Ebenezar Helan, Assistant Professor of English attended the event as well.

Dr. Rama's inaugural address on the benefits of the Pathfinders Club to students provided valuable insights into the club's mission and activities. Her speech effectively communicated the club's potential to help students develop important life skills and foster a sense of community and belonging. As such, students are encouraged to consider joining the club to take advantage of the The debate topic for the event was "Wealth or Values: Which is necessary to survive?" Participants of the debate were all department students who presented their views on the topic in a thoughtful and engaging manner.

The presentation of the participants was judged by a panel of judges Dr.M.Christy Mercy, Assistant Professor of Tamil, and Mrs.G. Ebanazar Helan, Assistant Professor of English evaluated their arguments and logical reasoning. The judges were impressed by the quality of the debate and commended the students for their excellent performance opportunities it offers.

Dr. Rama's inaugural address

Dr. M. Christy Mercy gave the conclusion for the debate that while wealth can provide material comfort and security, it is ultimately meaningless without a sense of purpose and values. She emphasized that true happiness and fulfillment come from having a sense of purpose and living a life aligned with one's values. After her conclusion, all attendees to the debate accepted her views.

M.K.Katheeja Rizwiya from III CS won the first prize in the debate competition. M. Rajalakshmi@sarmathi from II M.A. Tamil and M. Muthu Lakshmi from II M.Sc. Maths won the second and third prizes, respectively

Dr. Muthaj Begum, Librarian delivered a vote of thanks. She began by expressing her gratitude to all the participants who took part in the debates. She thanked them for their hard work and dedication, which made the event a great success. Muthaj Begum once again expressed her gratitude to Dr. Rama, and the debate judges for making the inauguration function of the Pathfinder Club a great success. The event would not have been possible without the contributions of everyone involved. The program ended with a duah by T.S.I.Aysha Banu IIBBA and the National Anthem

Talk on wealth or health which is necessary for life

Judges of the competition

Overall, the inauguration of the Pathfinder Club was a great success, and it was a wonderful opportunity for the students to showcase their debating skills and engage in intellectual discussions. The event was well-organized and executed, and it received positive feedback from everyone who attended.

Report on the Elocution Competition on "Freedom of Speech and Defamation Laws"

The recent defamation case against Congress leader and Wayanad MP Rahul Gandhi raised several questions about freedom of speech. It has also raised questions about the consequences of derogatory statements against public figures. The Pathfinders club organized an elocution competition on the topic of "Freedom of Speech and Defamation Laws" for students from all departments at Wavoo Wajeeha College. The competition aimed to provide a platform for students to express their views on a significant and timely topic. This was to encourage students to reflect on the importance of freedom of speech and the limits of defamation laws in a democratic society. A panel of judges evaluated each participant's presentation, including Mrs. Sumathi, Assistant Professor of Economics, and Ms. Jency Selina, Assistant Professor of Maths. They evaluated their arguments and logical reasoning.

Judges of the Competition

The competition was held on 28th April 2023 at 2.00 pm in the library hall, and around six students participated in it. The judges evaluated the arguments and logical reasoning presented by the participants and provided feedback to improve their communication skills.

The competition was highly competitive, with all participants showcasing their knowledge and understanding of the topic.

- ✦ The first prize was awarded to M. Muthu Kani, III BA Economics student, for her insightful and well-argued presentation on the topic.
- ✦ The second prize was won by A. Rafithe, III Physics student, for her clear and logical reasoning.
- ✦ The third prize was won by Z. Fathima Ashima, III B.A. English student, for her well-organized and coherent presentation.

The competition was an outstanding success, with all participants showing a deep understanding of freedom of speech and defamation laws. The Pathfinders Club congratulated the winners and thanked all participants for their contributions to the competition. The club expressed its commitment to organizing more such events to promote communication and critical thinking skills among students.

Talk on freedom of speech

In conclusion, the elocution competition on "Freedom of Speech and Defamation Laws" was a valuable platform for students to engage with a critical issue and enhance their communication and critical thinking skills. The winners' insightful presentations and the participation of all students demonstrate the importance of such events in promoting intellectual and personal growth among students.

It is with sincere pleasure that I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all the Pathfinder Club participants. Your dedication, hard work, and enthusiasm have been instrumental in making this club a great success. Your contributions have not been unnoticed, and we are deeply grateful for your commitment to our mission. I would also like to express my appreciation to Dr. Rama Principal Madam support and the Management members for their unwavering support and encouragement. Your guidance and leadership have been invaluable in guiding the club towards its goals.

Thank you again to all the Pathfinder Club members, Madam Support, and management members. Your efforts have been critical in helping us create a positive impact on our community, and we look forward to continuing our work together.
